

STATEMENT OF MEDICAL QUALIFICATIONS

Postgraduate Specialist in Internal Medicine

HIGHEST PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATION

Credential	Fellow of the College of Physicians and Surgeons (FCPS)
Specialty	Internal Medicine
Conferring Body	College of Physicians and Surgeons (CPS)
Scope of Qualification	- Advanced competency in complex diagnostic reasoning and management of multi-system clinical pathology. - Validated tertiary-level proficiency across medical sub-specialties including Cardiology, Pulmonology, Nephrology, Gastroenterology, and Endocrinology. - Authorized for independent consultant-level clinical practice, hospital leadership roles, and post-graduate residency supervision.

PRIMARY MEDICAL QUALIFICATION

Degree	Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS)
Classification	Professional Undergraduate Medical Degree
Core Curriculum	Pre-Clinical & Para-Clinical: Anatomy, Physiology, Biochemistry, Pathology, Microbiology, and Pharmacology. Clinical: Internal Medicine, General Surgery, Obstetrics & Gynecology, Pediatrics, and Community Medicine.
Clinical Internship	Completed a 1-year mandatory residential rotational internship encompassing hands-on emergency, outpatient, and inpatient surgical and medical discipline rotations.

CLINICAL COMPETENCIES & STANDING

Clinical Spectrum	Inpatient Care, Intensive Care (ICU/CCU), Outpatient Consultations, and Emergency Triaging & Resuscitation.
Technical Skills	Advanced life support, invasive bedside diagnostic/therapeutic procedures (e.g., lumbar puncture, paracentesis, central venous access), and advanced diagnostic profile interpretation.